PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra Sheets if Needed)

Fortistar Sustainable Solutions Corp. (the “Company”) has determined that it is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2021 (the “Q1 2021 Form 10-Q”) by the prescribed due date for the reasons described below.

On April 12, 2021, the Acting Director of the Division of Corporation Finance and Acting Chief Accountant of the Securities and Exchange Commission together issued a public statement (the “SEC Warrant Accounting Statement”) on accounting and reporting considerations for warrants issued by special purpose acquisition companies (“SPACs”), which indicated that warrants with certain features commonly issued in SPAC transactions “should be classified as a liability measured at fair value, with changes in fair value each period reported in earnings.” The Company previously accounted for its outstanding public warrants and private placement warrants (collectively, the “Warrants”) issued in connection with its initial public offering as components of equity instead of as derivative liabilities. As a result of the SEC Warrant Accounting Statement, the Company’s management is reevaluating the accounting treatment of its Warrants. Management’s preliminary assessment is that the Warrants should have been accounted for as derivative liabilities. Under this accounting treatment, the Company would be required to measure the fair value of the Warrants at the end of each reporting period and recognize changes in the fair value from the prior period in the Company’s operating results for the current period.

The Company is reviewing the impacts of the SEC Warrant Accounting Statement on the Company’s unaudited financial statements for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2021. Given the scope of the process for determining the appropriate treatment of the warrants in accordance with the SEC Warrant Accounting Statement and the time and dedication of resources needed to prepare the Q1 2021 Form 10-Q, the Company was unable to file the Form 10-Q by the required due date of May 17, 2021, without unreasonable effort and expense. The Company is working diligently and currently expects to file its Form 10-Q within five calendar days, but ultimately may not be able to do so.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 12b-25 includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The Company’s actual results may differ from its expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on these forward-looking statements as predictions of future events. Words such as “expect,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “believes,” “continue,” and similar expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the completion of the Company’s quarterly review procedures, many of which are outside the Company’s control, the Company’s expectations with respect to the timing of the filing of its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2021. These forward-looking statements involve significant risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from the expected results, including those under “Risk Factors” in the Registration Statement on Form S-1 filed with the SEC and declared effective on January 26, 2021 in connection with our initial public offering, and in subsequent reports filed with the SEC. Most of these factors are outside the Company’s control and are difficult to predict. The Company cautions readers not to place undue reliance upon any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made. The Company does not undertake or accept any obligation or undertaking to release publicly any updates or revisions to any forward-looking statements to reflect any change in its expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, except to the extent required by law.
